MORE LIGHT ON CARROLL AND JOE THOMAS, FAKE WRESTLERSSince things are beginning to come out in connection with the "fishing" trip to Honolulu of Joe Carroll and Joe Thomas, sure-thing wrestlers, a little more light on the matter will probably be appreciated.Carroll came to Honolulu last spring with Joe Thomas, traveling by the S. S. Slebia. He was on the passenger list as "Pennington" and had his wife with him. While in Honolulu he resided at Shady Nook on Beretania street.He and Thomas kept as far apart as possible on the trip from San Francisco. This was, of course, for the sake of appearances, for Pennington was the man who did the outside work in the crooked bouts in which Thomas figured.Carroll, alias Pennington, is a very clever wrestler, but lacks strength.
The talk of his dogging Roller with the idea of forcing him into a match is absurd.Carroll has also the reputation on the mainland of being a notorious card swindler.It was he and Joe Mayberry who were the schemers of the Mayberrygang, which has figured in innumerable crooked enterprises.Other members of the gang were A. Wilson and Joe Thomas, alias Bert Shores, alias Bert Warner, alias Billy Maynard, alias Young Hackenschmidt.
Their specialty was fake wrestling and foot-racing. Carroll was also known as Ole Marsh.Thomas, Carroll and a man named Harris were arrested in a log cabin on property owned by Carroll near Glen Ellen, Wash., in the fall of 1909.
They had been in hiding for some time and were wanted for misuse of the mails.Peter Baron of Honolulu was in the shack when the arrest was made. He was not arrested, however.Joe Thomas served time in jail till March of last year, and shortly after his release joined forces with Carroll in an expedition to Honolulu.The identity of Carroll and Thomas was unknown to anyone at this end with the exception of Messrs. Allen and Walker, two newspaper men, who, notwithstanding that the two notorious crooks were operating in the community's midst, saw fit to hold their peace.EDMUND LAMY SKATES A HUNDRED YARDS IN NINE SECONDS FLAT

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., January 3.—Edmund Lamy, former amateur skating champion, covered 100 yards on the lake here recently in 9 seconds flat from a standing start in an exhibition trial. The record is 9.3-5 seconds, made by Morris Wood, a amateur, at Vernon Lake, N. J., in 1903. Lamy's feat is remarkable because he skated around a circular track and was not paced. In another exhibition he beat all former barrel jumping records by leaping over seven barrels ends up and twelve on their sides, one more in each case than he ever did before. Lamy entered the professional skating ranks this winter, having lost his amateur standing by playing professional baseball. He will meet Morris Wood and several other stars in the near future. Claudius and Ernest, Edmund's younger brothers, are out after the amateur title. The two are wonderful skaters and have captured many races during the past two years. The picture shows Ernest at left, Edmund in center and Claudius on right.

BANKERS WON FIRST TIME OUT

F. Bailey had high score for the Bankers with 174. C. Hoogs got away with high average, 143.

For the losers, O. Webber obtained both high score and average, 158 and 144 respectively.

The All-Chinese baseball team has announced its willingness to meet the nine of the U. S. S. West Virginia on Sunday, January 28, at the Athletic Park, the occasion of the benefit for the Naval Relief Society. The West Virginia helped out the Chinese Red Cross benefit and the Chinese bal-loters very properly want to reciprocate.
